

MANAGING THE FUTURE

A conference organized by The John Ray Initiative with the London Institute of Contemporary Christianity, supported by the John Templeton Foundation,
the Shell Foundation and the RSA
(The Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufacture and Commerce)

Programme

9.30 Registration and coffee

I. Approaching sustainability: problems and suggestions

10.00 Chairman's introduction

10.15 Sustainable communities in practice

Graham Ashworth, former chief executive, Going for Green

10.45 Poverty and sustainable business

Kurt Hoffman, Director, Shell Foundation

11.15 Climate change—equity and international agreement.

John Ashton, LEAD International, previously head of environment division, Foreign and Commonwealth Office

11.45 Sustainable consumption

Sir Brian Heap FRS, Master of St Edmunds College Cambridge

12.15 The political context

Derek Osborn, chair of UN Environmental and Development committee UK

12.45 Lunch

14.00 Redefining prosperity

Sir Jonathon Porritt, Chairman, Sustainable Development Commission

II. Affecting attitudes: problems and suggestions

14.30 Caring for creation—love, justice, and altruism

Holmes Rolston III, Colorado State University, Winner of the 2003
Templeton Prize for 'Progress Toward Research or Discoveries about Spiritual Realities'.

15.15 Caring for Creation—a Christian perspective

Rt. Rev. John Oliver, former Bishop of Hereford

15.45 RSA's manifesto and its challenges

Sir Paul Judge, Chairman of the Royal Society of Arts

16.00 Tea

16.30 Panel Discussion

Chaired by Sir Ghillea Prance FRS, President, Christians in Science; former Director of the Royal Botanic Gardens

17.45 Wine reception

Cost: £15 per head, to include lunch and reception